2013 Grand Marshal

Commitment, dedication, and community service are only a few of the ideals we look at while selecting a Grand Marshal. While there are numerous people in the community that are more than qualified for such an event, the committee must pick one to represent this year's Central Maine Egg Festival.

We hope that everyone agrees that Spencer Havey more than deserves the position of Grand Marshal. Spencer has spent many years in the community serving for the Elk's, five times as the Exalted Ruler. There were 35 countless and selfless years working for law enforcement from Connecticut to Maine, serving as a Patrol Officer, Chief of Police in Pittsfield, and eventually Sherriff of Somerset County. On top of all the Law Enforcement, Spencer found time to work his way up from a firefighter to become the Assistant Fire Chief of the Pittsfield Fire Department at one time. When we looked at dedication, community service, and commitment, Spencer Havey met everything and then some.

We are proud that to have Spencer Havey as our Grand Marshal in 2013!

WELCOME TO ALL:

On behalf of the Town of Pittsfield, I am honored to welcome all of our Town's citizens and our many guests to the 41st Annual Central Maine Egg Festival. As we had such a great "Egg"stravaganza last year, this year's festival will be expanded to six days of fun with more concerts at our newly renovated Gazebo/Bandstand in Hathorn Park. This year's theme is SP"EGG" TACULAR CIRCUS!

Each year, an amazing number of people look forward to attending or participating in this fun tradition. The Egg Festival is a very important activity in our community and the region. It provides a great opportunity for families and friends to see each other and share memories at home comings and family get togethers. We hope that all citizens have the opportunity to participate in this year's Egg Festival.

Thousands of visitors will come to enjoy the festivities and be welcomed into the community by our citizens and businesses. We encourage you to frequent the Town's businesses, restaurants and organizations. Our merchants look forward to this week in order to proudly display their services and products. There are some wonderful stores and eateries to explore. Please drop by our many parks and town facilities. The Pittsfield Public Library will be hosting an Art Show and Reception for the Artists. The Pittsfield Community Theatre will be holding an Open House to show off the only municipally owned and operated theatre in Maine. There is something for everyone in this exceptionally friendly town located along the banks of the Sebasticook River. Please enjoy Pittsfield's hospitality!

A special thank you is extended to all of the members of the Central Maine Egg Festival Committee who have volunteered so much of their time and energy in planning the festivities. This year we were very fortunate once again to have a large group of volunteers come together to plan the Egg Festival. We also sincerely thank the many civic groups that help make the Egg Festival such a great family event each year. Putting together an activity of this magnitude and complexity always presents many opportunities. Congratulations to everyone for your amazing community spirit and contributions.

Our Town wishes you Egg-sellent Egg-ventures at the 41st Central Maine Egg Festival!

Sincerely yours,
Kathryn Ruth

Welcome to the 41st Annual Central Maine Egg Festival

"The mission of the Central Maine Egg Festival is to provide a venue where small central Maine non-profit groups can have a successful annual fund-raiser."

I would like to start out like every year by saying thank you to everyone who has made this year a success and more importantly made it possible. The committee has put countless hours into this year's Festival and I hope that everyone agrees with me that it has been a success.

This year's theme is "THE SP"EGG"TACULAR CIRCUS". Thanks to everyone who took advantage of this year's suggestion boxes by casting a ballot. It was overwhelming to see how many entries we received. We narrowed down the suggestions to the top three by most voted for and then made the tough selection.

On Saturday, July 20th, the Airport will be having a Fly In. This seemed to attract many people and we hope to see them all again this year. We have also expanded the live entertainment to Monday night in Hathorn Park. Tradition will be continued with events starting on Monday, July 15th. The Street Dance, Sidewalk Art Contest, Window Painting, Egglympics, a series of Concerts in the Park and much more will be happening all week!

We hope that everyone enjoys the 41st Central Maine Egg Festival. There is a lot of work that goes into preparing for an event of this size and it takes a great community to make it possible. We are always seeking new ideas and welcome all to participate.

Please have a safe and fun family experience and we hope to see everyone for years to come!
