

Town Manager's Report: Town Council Meeting of 10/17/2017:

1. The FYI Folder: FYI Folder which contains items that come in between the Town Council Meetings has the following this evening: READ List.

2. 2017 Tax Bills Summary: Just a quick reminder that 2017 Taxes are due on Friday, October 20, 2017.

3. November Municipal and SAD #53 Ballot:

Council:

At Large: Matthew Bolster

District #2: Caleb Curtis

SAD #53:

Margaret Holmes, Amy Wilson and Michael Wyly.

One position will remain vacant and require appointment by the Town Council until the next regular election. Generally, MSAD#53 will supply a name to the Town Council for consideration.

4. Pittsfield Public Library News: Events coming up:

Saturday, October 21 at 10:30

Self-Publish with Create Space

Yvonne Blake will talk about the benefits and disadvantages of self-publishing, as well as when and why a person might self-publish rather than go through the traditional method of publishing. She will go through the process of how to set up an account, work with a formatted template, design a cover, and the various benefits of working with CreateSpace.

This is open to everyone, but will be the how the Pittsfield Bicentennial book will be likely published.

Wednesday, November 8th at 6 PM – 7 PM

From Foe to Friend: German Prisoners of War in Maine

Hank Lunn will tell his personal story of having German soldiers working on the family farm in Littleton, Aroostook County, Maine during World War II.

For more information, please call the library 487-5880.

5. Spirit of America Award Ceremony:

The Spirit of America Award Ceremony was held on Wednesday, October 4, 2017 at 6:00 pm in the Superior Court Room of the Somerset County Building at 41 Court Street. The Town received an award for our efforts with volunteerism. More importantly, this is the last ceremony of the year to recognize our former Police Chief Steven Emery – the award was given in his memory. Steve daughters Tiffany and Alison accepted the award in his memory. Photographs are on the Town's website.